At St. Mary's Academy we have learned to [illegible] ... We focus on becoming a true part of the community. This is made possible by our thoughts and our actions, words, and deeds. We are a personal body and whenever we may wander, through all our lives, the hierarchy of the order of holiness, kindness and of the wisdom and happiness, will live [illegible] with God and angels.

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to Brother Bill Myers, our advisor, Sister Veronica Stronck, and Mr. Ron Hankins for their help in all aspects. We would also like to thank all friends involved with the Academy. Because without your presence there wouldn't have been a purpose to take pictures of.

Orpha May Symmonds

dedication

We dedicate this yearbook to Orpha May Symmonds, who has been a devoted housemother to Saint Mary's for eight years. She puts her heart into cleaning and keeping the school at its best. She takes pride in and shows love to us girls, who in turn, love her.

Nobody I know could love me more than you,
You can give me so much love it seems untrue,
Listen to the bird who sings it to the tree,
And then when you've heard him see if you agree,
Nobody I know could love you more than me.
Ev'rywhere I go the sun comes shining through,
Ev'ryone I know is sure it shines for you,
Even in my dreams I look into your eyes,
Suddenly it seems I've found a paradise,
Ev'rywhere I go the sun comes shining through.
It means so much to be a part of a heart of a Wonderful one.

Dear Hannah
You are a very sweet girl always!
with a smile.
See
you next year!
Love

We

Love

You!

Looking back a few short years
When we made our plans and played the cards
The way they fell

Clinging to our confidence
We stood on the threshold of the goal
That we knew dear

And though we had our fights
And our short-tempered nights
It couldn't pull our dreams apart
All our needs and all our wants
Drawn together in our heart
We felt it from the very start

It's all happened recently
Now we're living in that dream
We had not long ago

Everything is going fine
And now we just have to keep in mind
We must set brand new goals
We must not lose control
Of the possibility of the discovery
That would let everybody see
That we were just meant to be

Spirit Week

The first annual Spirit Week was held January 24 through 28 at St. Mary's. The student-council sponsored projects was instituted to lift the school spirit.

The seniors started off ahead in both spirit chain links and weight and finished the week winning both spirit chain events. The Student Council made a total of $120 from the week's activities.

Spirit Week started off with a bang. Monday was bust 'em day. The halls were filled with balloons and the students popped them. The object was to bring back as many pieces as possible for the class. For every 10 pieces, the class gained a link for their spirit chain.

Tuesday was crazy hat day. Each student paid 5 cents to wear a crazy hat. The object was to get the whole class to wear a crazy hat for a link.

Wednesday was Lick 'em day. Candy was thrown in the halls and the object was to turn in the wrappers to your Student Council representative. For every ten wrappers the class got a link.

Thursday was inside-out day. Everyone wore all their clothes inside out for a link.

Friday was 50's day and students dressed up for the 50's. Each class gained a link per student who dressed up for the day.

Friday was also the day when links were totaled with the winners having their name placed on a "traveling" plaque.

Throughout the week a weigh-in was also held. Each person paid 10 cents to weigh-in. They were allowed to have weights and other people as long as they were hidden. Starting Tuesday, every morning through Friday was a weigh-in with the prize for the most weight being free grub day for that class.

Spirit Week . . .

The start of endless spirit necessary for SMA to hold out.

How do you say goodbye
to someone special and not cry?
How do you let them know how much you care?
You hate to see them go;
and when they're leaving, then you know
how hard it is to say the words "goodbye!"

Happily, we have spent this time together.
Gratefully, we nod our heads and sigh.
We never would have met each other had we not been here.
It's worth each laugh-filled, painful tear we cry.

How do you walk away
from a place that ev'ry day
brings you faces of the people that you know?
It's never been ideal;
but this place, it has been real,
and it's been somewhere to learn and feel and grow.

Happ'ly, we have spent this time together.
Gratefully, we nod our heads and sigh.
We never would have met each other had we not been here.
It's worth each laugh-filled, painful tear we cry.

How do you let them know,
trying so hard not to show,
how much their leaving tears apart your soul?
You understand it's right;
we've new causes yet to fight.
But we're still a bit reluctant to let go.

Fondly, hugs and kisses they are given;
cheerfully, you wave your hand "goodbye."
All our mem'ries treasured here are never going to pass.
They'll always be close, though the time goes by.
